Job Ad

Are you a self-starter? Enjoy working with people of all ages? Do you have a passion for ministry?

Western Yearly Meeting of Friends Church (WYM) has an executive-level position open for Associate Superintendent. This newly-created position assists in providing support and leadership to WYM and reports directly to the General Superintendent. WYM consists of 33 meetings in Western and Southern Indiana and the Chicago, Illinois area. Based from the WYM office in Plainfield, Indiana, the Associate Superintendent will spend approximately 65% of their time focusing:

- Camp ministries
- Youth events
- Spiritual formation activities
- Young adult programs
- Other Board on Christian Education activities.

Approximately 35% will be devoted to:

- Networking and visitation within WYM
- Establishing, recruiting, and training the Volunteer Corps
- Networking with other Quaker organizations
- Supporting other WYM Boards and committees

WYM is willing to consider a variety of experiences and/or education that have equipped Friends to apply for this position. If you feel led to apply, you are encouraged to do so.
